Group Member Organization (GMO) Resources

Use these resourceful tools to get the most out of your affiliation with USDF!

GMOPrez List

The USDF GMOPrez List is a Yahoo message board where you can share information and ideas, ask questions, and gain insight from GMO officials across the country. To become a part of this growing online community, please e-mail the GMO Committee liaison at gmoliaison@usdf.org.

USDF GMO Officials Facebook Group

This is another resource to share information and ideas and ask questions. To become a part of this Facebook group, simply find the group on Facebook and request to join.

GMO Officials E-news

This e-news is included in the general membership e-news on a quarterly basis; February, May, August, and November. When you open the general USDF e-news during these months, you will see the GMO Officials E-news banner. Click on this banner to open the e-news that contains important information for GMO officials!

Logos and Ads

Have space available in your newsletter, omnibus, or on your website? Help get important information out to your members and subscribers by including ads created by USDF, for you, in your publications. All ads and logos can be found on the Press Page of the USDF website.

USDF Sponsors and Educational Partners

Is your GMO hosting a clinic or seminar? USDF has access to a number of speakers through sponsors and educational partners, who are willing to come and speak to GMOs on a variety of topics. Contact the GMO Committee liaison at gmoliaison@usdf.org for more information.

Group Member Organizations Committee

The Group Member Organizations Committee, made up of USDF members just like you, is here to serve you! Members of the Group Member Organizations Committee can assist you with any questions or concerns you might have regarding your GMO. Locate the Group Member Organizations Committee member in your Region on the USDF website.

GMO Handbook

The GMO Handbook is a valuable guide which contains useful information regarding GMO finances, insurance, volunteers, publicity and marketing, USDF affiliation, and much more! The GMO Handbook can be found on the USDF website.

USDF Website

The USDF website, www.usdf.org, is the place to go for all online member benefits (including eTRAK), forms and documents, detailed information on USDF programs and membership, and much more! Visit the USDF website today at www.usdf.org.

USDF Staff

USDF staff is here to assist you. The Senior GMO Coordinator processes Group Memberships submitted on rosters and answers any questions you might have regarding your affiliation with USDF, including member benefits. Contact the Senior GMO Coordinator at gmo@usdf.org.

The Group Member Organizations Committee liaison accepts applications for all GMO awards offered by USDF and the Ruth Arvanette Memorial Fund Grant, moderates the GMOPrez List, and liaises between the Group Member Organizations Committee and USDF. Contact the Group Member Organizations Committee liaison at gmoliaison@usdf.org.
